To all Students enrolled in expiring Bachelor programmes

(Matriculation before WS 15/16)

Compulsory audits will be offered in SS 18 for the last time

Dear Students of our expiring Bachelor programmes, the board of examiners of the faculty of economics and management determined comprehensive equivalencies regarding the compulsory examinations of our expiring and active Bachelor programmes at its last meeting on 18. January 2018. These regulations shall enter into force for the winter term 2018/2019.

All details concerning the individual equivalence exam are mentioned in Annex 1 to this letter and moreover published on the examination's office website.

Consequently all original compulsory audits referring to this decision will be ultimately offered in summer term 2018. All involved study programmes (connected to the specific examination and study regulations) are listed below:

Bachelor programm	Version of examination and study regulations
Betriebswirtschaftslehre	2009
Volkswirtschaftslehre	2009
International Management	2012
International Business and Economics	2012

Yours sincerely
(on behalf of)

Dr. Toni Richter
(Head of Examination Office)
